ELDER A. H. LUND.

Elder A. H. Lund made a brief address in which he congratulated all Scandinavians upon this jubilee, and complimented the women for the great work they had done here. They were entitled to much praise. When the Elders went forth on missions, the women remained at home and performed the added duties uncomplainingly, and in all the labor of the Church, the women did their share,

Elder Andrew Jenson then introduced to the congregation Mrs. Augusta
Dorius Stevens, one of the first company of Scandinavians to come to Utah, and Mrs. Augusta Hanson, widow of the late Elder P. O. Hanson, who was with Apostle Snow when the Gospel was first introduced into Scandinavia. PRESIDENT A. M. CANNON.

President Angus M. Cannon, who had come in during the meeting, was then introduced, and addressed the congre-gation in English. He said it was very gratifying to him, to address them. He well remembered the emotions stirred up in his heart when the first company of Scandinavians arrived here in 1852. He considered the northland Saints as his kindred, as the covenant children of God. In 1857 the speaker was emigration agent at Philadelphia, and there became intimately acquainted with many Scandinavians. His regard for them had grown ever since and he invoked the blessings of God upon them

THANKS TO ALL.

Mrs. Minnle Snow, in behalf of the mmittee, returned thanks to all who had aided in the work of arranging for the jubilee, and to the speakers. For the sake of those who had not been able yet to acquire a knowledge of English. she hoped that an association might be formed through which they might hear the Gospel preached in their native tongue, and this would also keep alive the language.

President Show was intimately acquainted with the Scandinavian charac-ter, as nearly half of the Saints in Box-elder were of that nationality. It was while living among them there for so many years that he learned to know their worth, their energy, their hospitality and their fidelity to God. The choir and congregation sang "C My Father," and Elder Sjodahl pro-nounced the benediction.

THE SALTAIR EXCURSION. Scandinavians Had an Enjoyable Time at the Resort.

The excursion of the Scand n /lans to Saltair yesterday afternoon was an enjoyable feature of the Jubilee. There was an immense attendance, and the excursionists made the occasion a con-spicuous success in all respects. In the evening, Justice Nielsen made an address on "The Scandinavians in America." recounting the achievements of his people in the development and upbuilding of this country.

Musical selections were given by the Swedish choir, Messrs Hagbert Anderson and Hyrum Olsen, and the whole program was thoroughly enjoyed.

Whites will be allowed to leave without certificates, but it is recommended that they provide themselves voluntarily with certificates to avoid possible delay.

At first the order from Washington read that whites as well as Asiatics must have health certificates, but this order was modified later, exempting Caucasians.

This action has been taken to assure people in other States that every precaution is being taken in California and there is no possible danger of the spread of plague if it should exist in San Francisco.

Detroit, June 16 .- Baron Von Kettler, the German minister to China, who is reported to have been killed in the "Boxer" riots in Pekin, was a son-inlaw of Henry B. Ledyard, president of the Michigan Central railroad. The baron was married to Miss Ledyard in 1897. When the news was conveyed to the Ledyard home, it was their first intimation or what is said to have occurred.
